

Dear Senior Fellows and Friends,

On the 29th, it will be a real privilege to welcome Les Wallace and Jim Trinka, who will discuss with you their new book, A Legacy of 21st Century Leadership: A Guide for Creating a Climate of Leadership Throughout Your Organization. If you already have the book, you're welcome to bring it with you to be signed. Books will be on hand for purchase, if you like, for $20 (soft cover) and $30 (hardbound). This is a catalytic and substantial resource.

Dr. Wallace's full bio is available at http://www.signatureresources.com/?page\_id=31 – go take a look. His experience has involved university teaching and research and the development of leaders in business, government and non-governmental agencies worldwide. Les makes it his business to stay on top of workplace trends and global leadership challenges. Dr. Trinka has spent his career developing military and civilian government leaders. We're fortunate that he drops by from time to time to share new developments, since he renews his practicing continually. Jim currently serves as Director of Technical Training and Development at the FAA.

This invitation is non-transferable, so that a proper welcome can be prepared for each participant. If a colleague would like to attend, please ask him or her to e-mail or call me in advance.

Walter Benesch, DHS, founder of the Senior Fellows Book Club, has graciously agreed to host this session. As usual, this will occur in Vie de France's banquet room, right rear off the center atrium, USDA Grad School building. There will be one dinner tab per table. Make it easy on yourself by bringing small bills! Please contribute $5 toward room rent as you pick up your nametag. The room opens at 5:30 and order-taking will begin at 6:30.

Metro/parking details will be e-mailed to "yes" RSVPs beforehand. Please RSVP by Saturday, January 26th.

Regards,

Kitty Wooley
U.S. Department of Education